Ghost Writer 128

word processor and spelling-checker

GhostWriter 128 is a truly easy-to-use and powerful word processing program. Use it to create anything from business letters to term papers and print perfect copies. GhostWriter 128 is as easy to use as a typewriter but has the flexibility of your computer. You can make instant changes on the screen and see exactly what will print. A thorough manual is included with "How-To" Guides and command reference sections to aid even the first time user.

Features include:

- –80/40* column viewscreen window of a possible 240 self-formatting columns
- –Move, delete, merge/insert blocks of text
- –Center text, align columns of numbers or text
- –Create headers, footers, automatic page numbering, auto-pagination
- –Global search and replace
- –Produce form letters, chain files together, mail merge
- –Adjustable screen colors
- –Works with OmniWriter™ files and other popular productivity packages

The Spellchecker included within GhostWriter 128 has a dictionary of over 30,000 words that can be expanded as GhostWriter "learns" new words. Large documents can be checked quickly for misspellings. All misspelled words are highlighted allowing for ease of identifying and correcting.

*Note: 80 column operations require RGBI monitor output. 40 column requires composite monitor or television set output.

How your software program could become part of the HESWARE family.

If you've created a high quality software program for the Commodore or any other home computer, we're interested in evaluating it for inclusion as part of the HESWARE family of software products.

Human Engineered Software (HES) is a leader in developing and marketing third-party software for home and small business.

We're actively seeking software in the following categories for evaluation:

- Business/Productivity
- Education
- Entertainment
- System/Utilities
- Peripherals

If you have a high quality software package which you think can meet our standard of excellence, please call or write. We'll send you our software acquisition guide.

Maybe one of your programs will qualify to become part of the HES family.
